HOUSE RULES

We pride ourselves on making Pink Moon a safe, clean and comfortable experience for everyone. That's why we ask you to follow these guidelines. Above all, we ask that you respect one another, respect the facilities and respect our staff. The festival may have its own rules and guidelines too, so please check their website for more details:

SECURITY

We have security working around the clock to make sure no one can enter the site unless they are a guest. Unfortunately, this does mean that friends who haven't booked with us can't come to visit. Please also remember to zip up your doors and windows when you leave the tent or when you're sleeping,

BBQ AND STOVES

Please refer to the festival guidelines on BBQs and stoves. This is subject to change at the discretion of the festival.

QUIET TIMES

Even festival fanatics need their beauty sleep! During the hours of 1 am till 7 am we ask you to respect our Quiet Times policy by keeping noise levels to a minimum. Please note that we cannot control noise outside of our sites.

SMOKING & ALCOHOL

Smoking and vaping are not permitted in enclosed spaces, so please don't smoke inside your tent or any structures. Please refer to the festival guidelines for Alcohol/soft drink allowance.

GAZEBOS

We're sorry, but we can't allow any gazebos, so please don't bring them on-site.

PAMPER PARLOUR

We have a variety of straighteners and hairdryers available in our Pamper Parlour. Please note you won't be able to plug in your own styling tools.

SUBJECT TO CHANGE

Please note that all details are subject to change prior to the festival. We will send out a final information pack a week or two before the festival with the final confirmed details on. Please look out for this via email
